WHAT IS THE CAMINO DEL ROCÍO?

The Camino del Rocío is one of the most authentic and exciting pilgrimages in Spain: a spiritual, cultural, and festive journey that culminates in the village of El Rocío, home to the Virgin of El Rocío. One of its greatest attractions is the natural surroundings, history, and wine.

- Cross marshlands, pine forests, unspoiled beaches, and rivers such as the Guadalquivir by ferry barge.
- Visit wineries with more than 200 years of history.
- Share moments of traditional flamenco singing and dancing.
- Visit Doñana National Park, touring in a 4x4 vehicle on a photographic safari.
- Marshlands, pine forests, and sandy trails.

DAY 1

MADRID

*

You will be able to check in at the hotel starting at 2:00 p.m.

Our staff will be at the hotel restaurant at the scheduled time to welcome you.

Afterwards, a dinner briefing will be held so all participants can get to know each other, where we will provide instructions for the following day's activities.

DAY 2

MADRID/CÁDIZ

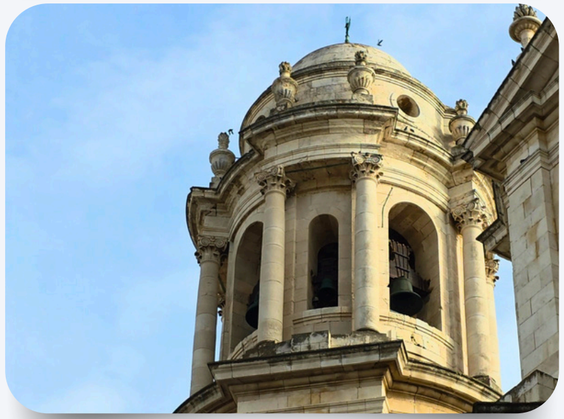

Early in the morning, a private bus will take us from the hotel to Atocha Station to board the high-speed train to Cádiz.

Cádiz evokes sensations reminiscent of iconic destinations such as Cartagena de Indias: living history, intense light, and a constant connection to the sea. However, Cádiz offers a more intimate, authentic, and refined experience, away from large crowds.

A unique setting that marks the perfect beginning for an exclusive journey toward El Rocío.

DAY 3

STAGE 1 - 25 KMS

Zococamino

CÁDIZ – PUERTO REAL

This first stage unfolds among marshlands, salt flats, and open landscapes, offering a constant connection with the most authentic nature of southern Spain.

The route progresses toward San Fernando, a land of maritime tradition, and continues to Puerto Real, crossing environments of great ecological value within the Natural Park of the Bay of Cádiz.

A gentle and evocative stage, where the light, the endless horizon, and the Atlantic breeze create a serene and exclusive experience—perfect for beginning the journey toward El Rocío.

DAY 4

STAGE 2 - 15 KMS

Zococamino

PTO. REAL – PTO. SANTA MARÍA

From Puerto Real, the journey continues through open landscapes and unique ecosystems, where marshlands and pine forests accompany every step in an atmosphere of calm and authenticity.

The route enters the heart of the Natural Park of the Bay of Cádiz, offering an immersive experience in the midst of nature, with the constant presence of water, wildlife, and Atlantic light.

Arrival in El Puerto de Santa María introduces a change of pace: a stately city with a strong winemaking tradition, elegant wineries, and a sophisticated atmosphere closely connected to the sea.

A well-balanced stage that combines nature, culture, and the Andalusian way of life, adding depth and character to the journey.

DAY 5

STAGE 3 - 15 KMS.

Zococamino

PTO. SANTA MARÍA - ROTA

The day begins in the historic elegance of El Puerto de Santa María, leaving behind its centuries-old wineries and maritime legacy to embark on a route where the Atlantic once again takes center stage.

The path runs along coastal trails, pine forests, and open stretches with sea views, offering a dynamic and luminous experience, where the Atlantic breeze and the vastness of the landscape accompany every step.

Arrival in Rota brings a relaxed and sophisticated atmosphere, with its seafaring character, expansive beaches, and renowned gastronomy that invites you to enjoy the moment at an unhurried pace.

DAY 6

STAGE 4 - 15 KMS

Zococamino

ROTA - CHIPIONA

The stage begins in Rota, following the Atlantic coastline until reaching Chipiona (birthplace of the singer Rocío Jurado), a luminous enclave dominated by its iconic Chipiona Lighthouse, the tallest in Spain.

From here, the journey becomes even more evocative, continuing along endless beaches, dunes, and open landscapes where the ocean sets the rhythm. The light, the sound of the sea, and the vastness of the horizon create a deeply sensory experience.

DAY 7

STAGE 5 - 10 KMS

Zococamino

CHIPIONA – SANLÚCAR

A stage that combines nature and culture at their finest. Walkers travel along endless beaches, dunes, and pine forests, enjoying the serenity of the Atlantic. Charming small towns set the rhythm of the journey, offering authentic local experiences. Arrival in Sanlúcar de Barrameda allows guests to delight in its renowned gastronomy, historic wineries, and privileged views of the Guadalquivir River, closing the stage with a unique sense of well-being and discovery.

In the afternoon, the stage is enhanced with a premium moment: a visit to the LA GITANA winery in Sanlúcar, where guests can discover the region's winemaking tradition, taste unique wines, and learn about the history that connects these lands with the Guadalquivir River and the Atlantic.

This is one of those details that make the journey not just a walk, but a complete sensory experience.

DAY 8

STAGE 6 - SAFARI

Zococamino

SANLÚCAR – EL ROCÍO

"From the marshlands to the endless horizon, crossing by boat and cycling along the beach, El Rocío awaits us as the reward for the adventure."

A unique experience that combines adventure, nature, and photography. Walkers cross the Guadalquivir River by barge, entering the heart of Doñana National Park. During the journey, a photographic safari allows guests to observe birds, deer, and the most emblematic protected ecosystem in Andalusia.

The stage culminates in the mystical El Rocío, with its sandy streets, rich history, and authentic spirit, bringing the day to a close with a sense of emotion and natural discovery.

DAY 9

EL ROCÍO - SEVILLE

After breakfast at the hotel, we will travel by private bus to Seville to the high-speed train station.

We invite you to spend this day enjoying free time to explore the city of Seville, take a tour, or visit a museum.

From Seville, you may choose to travel to other destinations in Andalusia, such as Málaga or Granada, or return to Madrid.
